

Variations on Pendulum Use

The pendulum is commonly used to receive answers from your spiritual guide by posing the question(s) then getting your pendulum to answer yes or no. The position of the pendulum for “yes” and “no” is not the same for all people. For most people their “yes” movement and “no” movements are clockwise or anti-clockwise or vice versa.

The circle overleaf is divided into 8 quadrants. Each starting point is numbered 1 through to 8. Each of these can have a specific answer or direction fixed to it. Each individual must test out each position against their chosen preference until all 8 have got either question or direction attached to it. Once this has been established, allow yourself 5 minutes without the pendulum then go back and check that each of these positions are correctly designated.

General	Character Analysis	Decision-making	Viability high risk	weak	logic	does it make sense less than correct	strong	reason	is it viable for me wait	positive	financial sense	is it viable for you think again	negative	emotional sense	are there hidden risks be warned	stubborn	all the facts	is success rate high trust	obsessive	suitability for me	is this the right time not safe	open-minded	good prospects	will I/you emotionally handle it widen question	close-minded	bad decision	am I/you capable of it